

Apply for:
UC Berkeley, School of Public Health
Center for Health Leadership
Student Board

Who we are:

10 continuing students representing 6 program areas (with you we'll be 20!). The Student Board engages students from all SPH disciplines, to focus on developing leadership programs and activities that will enrich the SPH community. The Board provides us a hands-on way to develop our own leadership skills through providing opportunities for the rest of the student body.

Who you are:

- Enthusiastic about developing your own leadership skills
- Excited about creating new leadership opportunities for fellow students
- From any concentration
- MPH, DrPH, PhD, MS

This year's activities:

- Participate in ongoing design and evaluation of the Center for Health Leadership (CHL)
- Determine mission, objectives, functions of the Board
- Participate in spring conference and other CHL activities
- Implement ideas generated by the Board
- Develop and implement a mini-grants program
- Coordinate speakers series
- Plan board retreats and trainings
- Develop and implement a mentoring program for SPH students

Benefits:

- Personal leadership development
- Meet students from other concentrations
- Network with public health leaders
- Board retreats and trainings
- Put your skills into action

Responsibilities (approximately 6-10 hrs/month):

- Attend monthly meetings
- Participate in subcommittee and individual work outside of meeting times
- Advise CHL Director and Planning Team on programs and directions
- Accept leadership and participatory roles in relation to CHL Student Board projects as needed, which might include working closely with SPH staff, faculty, and fellow students
- Act as an advocate for CHL and help to spread the word about its programs/trainings

Information Session:

Wednesday, September 2nd, 5:15pm Room 256 (University Hall)
